

2027 GRAND ON-SITE RETREAT:
VAJRAYOGINI EMPOWERMENT AND COMMENTARY
With the Three Red Ones – Naro, Indra, and Maitri Khacho
(From the Thirteen Golden Dharmas)

In these degenerate times of darkness, chaos, and conflict, the Vajrayogini practice shines even brighter and stronger. It possesses the power to transform our ordinary minds and daily activities, accelerating our path of awakening into the clear light of the Dharmakaya and swiftly bringing joy and happiness to all beings in this lifetime.

VAJRAYOGINI EMPOWERMENT, TRANSMISSIONS, & COMMENTARIES

On the auspicious occasion of the annual Dakini's Whisper on-site retreat, Khandro la will bestow the authentic empowerment of Vajrayogini from the great Mahasiddha, Naropa.

In addition, Khandro-la will offer a special transmission of two additional forms of Vajrayogini from the great Mahasiddhas, Indrabhuti and Maitripa.

Collectively, these three forms of Vajrayogini make up a cycle known as the Three Red Ones (Marmo Kor Sum), which are found within the Thirteen Golden Dharmas.

The Thirteen Golden Dharmas (Sercho Chuksum) are a highly treasured collection of esoteric tantric practices. Historically, they have been maintained by the Sakya and Geluk traditions and were guarded so closely that receiving the transmissions required offerings of pure gold.

The empowerment and transmissions are followed by a series of commentaries on the eleven yogas and intimate retreat advice for those who will engage in the closed retreat.

Throughout the week, Khandro la will bestow numerous opportunities for connecting to the Dharma through public teachings and blessings that all will be welcome to attend.

ONSITE ATTENDANCE ONLY

To honor the integrity of the lineage and the rare, esoteric nature of these teachings, this empowerment is offered exclusively onsite; an online option will not be available.

(Some public teachings might be broadcast online, but this will not include empowerments.)
